Ben Mullins Passes Away.

At about 6 p. m. Sunday, Ben Mullins died at his home near the Big Hollow, his death resulting, it is said, from a mine accident at Kewanee a few months ago in which he was injured by falling slate.

The funeral was conducted at the Seward graveside above Island creek Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. A. D. Cline and a large crowd gathered to lend their sympathies to the bereaved family and to assist in the burial rites.

The deceased was 40 years of age, he was a brother of John Mullins of Pikeville, of James Mullins of Betsy Lyons, and Alfred Mullins.

He is survived by his wife and two children.

Victim of Paralysis.

Will Davis of West Plains, Missouri, died of paralysis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Stratton here at 6 a. m. Thanksgiving day. Mr. Davis was a brother of Mrs. Stratton and was 60 years of age. He was never married.

A few weeks ago while visiting his sister he was stricken with paralysis from which he never rallied.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stratton accompanied the remains to West Plains.

IN MEMORY

On November 14, 1922, the angel of death snatched at the dawn of dawn the soul of Mrs. W. F. Moore and called from the home a darling baby boy, James Edwards.

Little James Edwards was born September 29, 1920. He had been an invalid most all the time and about three weeks before his death he became worse. He bore his suffering with patience.

We feel that the home has lost a tender bud, but Jesus just picked the bud from the stem and transplanted it in heaven where there will be no growth, no wither, the precious flower, but it will flourish and bloom on throughout all eternity.

I would say to the friends and loved ones of little Edward not to think of the pain, this form of little Edward as it was when he went away, but when you meet him it will be a bright shining angel.

Little Edward had grown to be the favorite of the home and everybody loved him, but Jesus loved him more.

The home is lonely, the father and mother are heartbroken, the sisters and brothers are lonely since Edward has gone away. He leaves father, mother, five brothers and two sisters to mourn here on earth while he is rejoicing in heaven. Live a life that when you come to die Edward would come with Jesus and take you home.

He was laid to rest in the family burying ground on the point overlooking the home to await the second coming of Christ when the dead in Christ shall rise first.

Sleep on, sweet babe and take thy rest.

God called these home, He thought it best.

A little flower of love that blossomed but to die.

Transplanted now above to bloom with God on high.

JENKINS

On Saturday afternoon, December 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Tom Williams, of Jenkins, a surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. E. L. Sweetnam, formerly Miss Ida Style, of Ashland. A delightful afternoon was spent as it was the first opportunity the women of Jenkins had been given to meet the bride of Prof. E. L. Sweetnam and the afternoon proved to be a real Thanksgiving occasion for the bride and bridegroom as they were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Amid music and laughter delicious refreshments were served which were greatly enjoyed.

A Puzzle.—"I beg your pardon, sir, but what is your name?" the teller politely asked the man presenting a check.

"Name," echoed the indignant customer, "you see my signature on the check?"

"I do," answered the teller. "That's what aroused my curiosity."—Dry Goods Economist.
